

Privacy Policy

Protection of User's Personal Information

The Women and Children's Health Network (WCHN) highly values privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information of its users. No personal information is collected from users of this site without their prior permission. The WCHN does not sell, rent, or lease personal information about its website users to third parties.

Server Logs

We continuously strive to improve the access, design, and functionality of our site to provide an optimal experience for visitors. In order to achieve this, we may track certain statistics such as IP address, browser type, domain name, access times, and referring website addresses. These statistics are used to analyze trends, gather demographic information, and improve our site's performance. These statistics do not include any personally identifiable information.

Personal Information Sent via Email

If you choose to provide personal information when signing up for our Network Newsletter, submitting an entry in our contact form, or through other means, we will only use that information for the specific purposes for which it has been provided. For example, we may use your information to respond to your specific request or to sign you up for the WCHN newsletter. We will not use or share your personal information for any other purposes without obtaining your consent.

External Web Links

WCHN provides links to external websites for your convenience and as a resource. However, we do not guarantee the accuracy or privacy of these external websites. We encourage you to review the privacy statements of the websites you choose to visit from the WCHN's website, as they may have different practices regarding the collection, use, and sharing of your information.

Privacy and Social Media

WCHN is dedicated to protecting the privacy of our Network members and community members. We will never post personal health, employment, financial information, contact information, or other sensitive details about you without your explicit consent. Only when we have obtained consent from individuals will we publish photos, stories, and/or other information that you have shared with the WCHN. We remind you to exercise caution and protect your own privacy as well as the privacy of others when using and participating in our social media accounts.

Questions

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the Privacy Statement for the WCHN website, please contact us at 705-325-2201 ext 8125.